
a Ten sources
Siku quanshu (Kanripo) 100
JiCheng editions 816
CMETA collated editions 11
Wikisource 18
AEAM · McGill · other 7 · 5 · 9
+ image catalogues: 10,001 records
Admission
historical texts only; contemporary works removed by review; pseudepigrapha dated by first appearance De-duplication
12-character shingles against trusted sources; independent witnesses kept, never merged Layered dating text, commentary and later additions dated apart; undated → Qing, never earlier Normalization
variant and simplified forms unified for matching only; the transcription is never altered Corpus store
966 witnesses · 761 works
123 M characters
2.05 M passages; periods 475 BCE–1949
canon of 350 works → open web corpus of 348 works, 8.5 M characters, in the browser Every passage keeps its book, edition, volume · chapter · page, date range, textual layer, transcription source and licence
b
Qin–Han
Wei–Jin
Sui–Tang
Song–Jin–Yuan
Ming
Qing
All witnesses (n = 966)
Witnesses of the 350 canon works (n = 531)
Witnesses per 25 years
Composition date (year)
c
Curated by the editors 329
Year in the book record 204
Signed preface or colophon 139
Author's life or other works 116
Another witness of the work 59
Dynasty only 15
Undated (counted as Qing) 104
Witnesses
Dated to a single year: 537 of 966; median range 0 years, upper quartile 83 years
d
Witnesses in the corpus
1 5 ≥10
Influence score
Composition date (year; midpoint of range)
1 Suwen
2 Lingshu
3 Jingui yaolüe
4 Nanjing
5 Shanghan lun
6 Shennong bencao jing
7 Qianjin yaofang
8 Maijing
9 Zhenjiu jiayi jing
10 Waitai miyao
e 348 works · 368 witnesses
8.51 M characters
Characters kept (×10³)
Canon rank
Chapters sampled Whole text
Further witness (top 10)
Budget per first witness